NO. 17BK-3283 LTS

MOTION INFORMING THE COURT

Comes now the movant Pro Se Hiram Pérez-Soto, and respectfully alleges and informs to the Honorable Court the following:

1. That in the complaints filed in the Federal District Court 19CV-1266 and 19CV-1774 the defendants obtained a judgment of dismissal.

We filed a notice of appeal in the consolidated cases. The number of the case in the Appeals Court First Circuit is 21-1404. That in that case the Appeals Court ordered that I had to obtain a clarification order from the Honorable Bankruptcy Judge. That the approval of the stipulation lifting the automatic stay under certain conditions pertaining to case 19CV-1774 approved on November 4, 2019 and the order lifting the automatic stay under certain conditions pertaining to case 19CV-1266 made on August 22, 2019 are also applicable to the Appeals Court with the same conditions in the case First Circuit 21-1404.

2. That we are sending the letter that I sent to the Counselors for the Oversight Board and AAFAF. That letter was sent in compliance with the 8th amended notice case management administrative procedures Docket No. 4866-1. Inasmuch as we have not receive any objections it can be presumed that there is no objection from the aforesaid counselors.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested to this Honorable Court to clarify that the order approving the stipulation lifting the automatic stay pertaining to case 19CV-1774 made on November 4, 2019 under certain conditions is also applicable in the appeals case pending in the First Circuit 21-01404. Also that the order made on August 22, 2019 pertaining to case 19CV-1266 lifting the automatic stay under certain conditions, that those conditions are also applicable to the appeals case pending in the First Circuit 21-01404.

I hereby certify that I filed manually this motion with the Clerk of this Court and send by Email copy of this motion to:

Omar Andino Figueroa, Court of Appeals Bar Number 1197240; email: omar.andino@justicia.pr.gov
